On the Hagfish

(Class: Myxini)

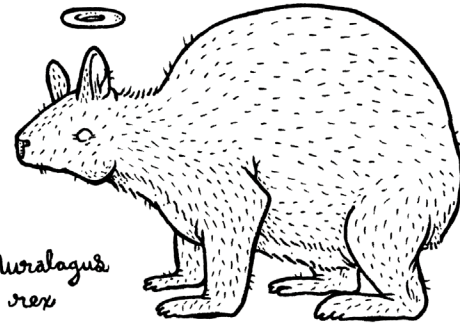

the hagfish is a jawless atrocity that resides in the darkest depths of Poseidon's great ocean and scavenges on carcasses (i.e., the aftermath of death). it has a skull but no spine.

this is its face.

On Nuralagus rex

Nuralagus rex

European rabbit

Nuralagus rex was a giant rabbit that lived on the Mediterranean island of Minorca millions of years ago. it likely went extinct when the prehistoric goat-like Myotragus arrived on the island.
